SCHOOL NEWS

On Friday 26th September we going back in time to when our school was first built in the 1920's. All members of staff will be dressed in 1920 fashion and we would love it if the children could join us! Boy's could wear trousers pushed into socks, shirts and flat caps and girls could wear a smock dress and long socks. We will also be wearing the clothing for our Open Day on 27th Sept which the children can join us for with their parents!

Next Friday (26/09) Classes 5 & 6 are organising a Macmillan Coffee Afternoon from 1.30pm. All parents and carers are welcome to join us for a fun afternoon! Don't forget that on Saturday 27th September we are holding an Open Day from 10am for anyone wanting to come along a view the old school before demolition. This will be the last chance the public will get to walk round the building and reminisce. Could we once again ask for old school photographs that we can use in our time line display. Refreshments will be available on the day as well as a display from Beamish Museum. We hope that all children can join us dressed in their 1920's clothes accompanied by their parents/carers.
