SCHOOL NEWS

Please be aware that next week will be the last week for After School Clubs/Booster Class as there is so much going on in school at this time of year. A new list of activities will be advertised in January 2014.

NEW SCHOOL BUILD UPDATE; Don't forget that the building works will start from Monday 2nd December. Firstly the contractors will be creating the new entrance to the school via the Library. The Library access into school will be closed as from this date. Please be aware that the traffic congestion and parking around the school may be an issue once the building work starts. If you are in a position to walk to school please consider this first, thank you.

We will be holding a Scholastic Book Fayre in school from Monday 2nd December. Parents and carers can come into school from 3.15pm to look at the books on offer!

If your child currently has a packed lunch but would like their Christmas dinner instead please inform the school office. The price of a meal is £1.80.

Please be aware that the snack money in the Foundation Stage Unit will be £1 per week from January 2014.

Mrs Brown would like to thank the Class 6 parents who came for the SAT's meeting on Monday. She hopes you found the information useful.

Well done to Callum Nicholson and Phillip Quinn who won an award from Star Radio whilst attending a media day at Ferryhill Business and Enterprise College. Their award was for the best advertisement. Congratulations boys!!
