SCHOOL NEWS

Welcome back to what can be our busiest half term. We have listed all upcoming events leading up to the Christmas break so you can be prepared. From Monday can pupils in classes 1 & 2 bring their weekly snack money of £1 in on Monday mornings thank you.

If anyone would like to make a shoebox please collect a leaflet from the office (please don't forget to include the specified postage money). Boxes will be taken to Ferrihill Methodist Church week beginning 11th November for blessing and send off. Thank you.

Poppies have been available all week for a donation towards the Royal British Legion Appeal. We hope all children will be wearing a poppy for the Remembrance Service on Monday 11th November.

In addition to the book catalogues given out this week we will also be holding a half price scholastic book fayre in school on Monday 2nd December 2013. Pupils will be able to enter a competition to win £5 vouchers to spend at the fayre.

Well done to the Athletics Team who performed in the Sedgfield Cluster of Primary's at Newton Aycliffe Leisure centre this week. Overall our school came second and we now proceed to the finals in January!
