SCHOOL NEWS

Next Tuesday (26/01/16) we are inviting parents and carers to a lost property collection from 3pm to 3.30pm in the main school hall. Please ensure your child has their name in EVERY piece of clothing!

St Johns Ambulance are coming into school next Friday to deliver first aid training to our KS 2 children. The children will learn basic first aid which will give them an understanding and knowledge of how to keep themselves and others safe and healthy.

To brighten up these dark days we have decided to have our own West Cornforth Primary School Lumiere Festival. On Wednesday 10th February from 5-6pm all our families are invited to come along and view the art and lights around the school that the children have created. Refreshments will be available to keep us warm.

Please can we remind parents and carers that jewellery is not allowed to be worn in P.E. lessons. One pair of stud earrings are allowed to be worn in school but your child must be able to remove them for P.E.

Governor Vacancy
We have a vacancy for a Parent Governor. Anyone wishing to apply should contact the school office, thank you.

Head Lice
Unfortunately we have had numerous reports of head lice throughout the school. Please can you take the time this weekend to check your child's hair and ensure they are clear before our return on Monday. If we are all vigilant we can stop the spread, thank you!

'Happy Birthday to..'
