Freddy is watching some birds in the warm rainforest. When bird watching he helps the environment in case people come into the forest. Freddy sees some beautiful birds. He has to catch birds. He loves the birds at this forest.

Freddy looks like a nice guy. He's not very tall and he is a bit chubby. He could put a wave machine on if anyone tries to do something, he can save the rainforest. Freddy is the best spy in the business. Freddy is a kind man, but he's also quiet. He likes to work alone. Freddy never leaves problems unsolved.

Barry is a tall dark haired man, he has lots of scars on his face. Barry Burn has a lair in a rocky area in the rain forest. It's the darkest part of the Amazon. Barry is a nasty villain, he's always trying to ruin the rain forest. Barry is a angry man with a very evil laugh. Barry isn't alone, he has a large army of poisonous dart frogs.

Freddy the secret agent has flown out to the Amazon rainforest, where he will receive instructions on his next mission. Freddy finds out about an evil man called Barry Burn and he has an evil plan. Freddy has to find Barry, figure out his plan, and stop him at all costs.

Freddy spends days searching for Barry. He finally finds him in the Brazil and Peru boarder. Freddy thinks that this is his secret lair. Freddy finds out that Barry is having a secret meeting tomorrow.

Freddy spends the rest of the day and night watching Barry. He hides in trees and in swamps, he even asked Barry where he would find a harpy eagle as part of his bird watcher disguise.

Finally, it's the morning of the meeting. Freddy was looking at the secret lair. There weren't any birds, it was very quiet, the lair was unlike the Amazon rainforest. It was dark and smells of fire. Suddenly, Barry arrives followed by a small army of poisonous dart frogs, the most dangerous species in the Amazon.

Barry talks about his plan to burn down the entire Amazon rainforest. Barry says "By tomorrow night the rainforest will be in flames" followed by an evil laugh. Freddy thinks about how this will effect the world. Lots of people and animals live in the Amazon. It will also damage the environment. Freddy shouts "Barry will be stopped!"

Barry leaves his secret lair with a secret torch, he marches through the forest. He's led by his army of poisonous dart frogs, scaring anyone who dare try stop Barry. Even Freddy knows he can't get near Barry because of the deadly frogs. Freddy phones the Brazilian army but they can't get there until 24 hours. Freddy needs a master plan.

As Barry gets closer and closer to the Amazon river, Freddy puts his wave machine in the direction of Barry and his army and turns the wave machine on full power. Freddy had no idea how strong this machine was. Not only did it put all of the fires out it washed all of the frogs down stream. Luckily Barry washed up in the middle of a lake surrounded by crocodiles.

Finally Freddy was happy to have defeated Barry. Freddy was now the hero of the Amazon.
