SCHOOL NEWS

Thank you to everyone who came to school in their 1920’s clothes today and who supported our Macmillan Coffee Afternoon. We have had a lovely day!
Don’t forget that tomorrow we are holding our Open Day from 10am to 3pm for anyone wanting to come along a view our old school before demolition. This will be the last chance the public will get to walk round the building and reminisce. Refreshments will be available as well as a display from Beamish Museum. There will be entertainment from a Punch and Judy Show (kindly funded by Sure Start). The children have been learning songs and poems to perform on this day. The schedule is as follows;
10.30am– FSU and Class 1
11am– Classes 3 & 4
11.30am– Class 2
1pm– Classes 5 & 6
If possible we would really appreciate it if you could come along with your child at the specified time (dressed in their 1920’s clothes) so they can perform for you and be part of an historic day.
Letters for upcoming parent’s evening out on Monday!

Year 6 Parents Meeting

Mrs Brown would like to invite her pupil’s parents to a meeting on Monday 29th September from 4.30pm regarding SAT Booster Classes. Representatives from Ferryhill Comp will also be attending. See you there!
