SCHOOL NEWS

This week our Year 6 pupils received their SAT results and we were overjoyed with the amazing results you all received. We would like to congratulate and thank all our Year 6 pupils, staff and parents/carers for the time and dedication you have given to ensure the very best results were obtained.

Well done to our Year 4, 5 & 6 pupils for their performances of ‘Porridge’ this week. You were all brilliant and we were so proud of you!

On Tuesday all parents and carers are invited to come into school to collect their child’s report from 1.30pm. Class teachers will be available for an informal chat. We look forward to seeing you.

On Thursday 16th July our Year 6 parents and carers are invited to attend an end of year/leavers assembly from 10.30am. The Year 6 children will say goodbye to Primary School as they leave us for their chosen Secondary Schools. All our parents and carers are then welcome to join us from 11.30am for fun activities and a picnic!

School Payments

Please can you ensure that all school payments (dinner money etc.) are cleared before the end of the school term on Thursday 16th July. Any credits will be checked and paid out next week unless you have expressed to have your credit carried over to the new academic year.
