SCHOOL NEWS

Next week is Science Week in school. Your children will be learning about the space around them and outer space.

We will be inviting parents and carers into school on the last two days of this term to help us celebrate Easter. You are welcome to join your children on Wednesday 23rd March from 1.30pm to 3pm to help them decorate their eggs and again on Thursday 24th March from 2pm for our end of term assembly and the announcement of the winners of the decorated egg competition. Refreshments will be available, we hope you can join us.

We are collecting Sainsburys Active Kids Vouchers. If you have any please drop them into the school office, thank you.

Do any of our parents or carers want to join our Governing Body?

If you would like further information about what a School Governor role entails, please call in to see us!
